Newest Attempts Before Verdun Not Worth the Cost

Austria Admits Reverse on the Dniester River.

The Germans before Verdun are making a strong drive at the meh left flank, well toward the border of the neighboring . Argman region and have gained ground south of Malancourt, some ten miles northwest of Verdun. Their first attacks took them into the Malancourt wood, and to day's official statement from Paris shows that since, they have pushed some distance further southward, ecupying the Avocou ourt wood, the southern section of the Malan-

A news agency despatch from Teheran reports the occupation of Ispahan, one of the most important cities of Perria, 218 miles southeast of Teheran, by the Russians.

The Russians have won an soundiant process in southeastern operation, where viewn dentits that the Austrian bridgehead at Associate, on the Duiester, about forty niles northwest of Caernovits, has been evacuated under the heavy Russian pressure. The Austrian force there was trapped, but out its way through Uzciecako, which the Russians held, and joined other Austrian forces near Vale

The Italians have resumed heavy attacks at the Tolmino bridge-bad, Vienna reporting the repulse of assaults against Mrziivrh and Kr., with losses to the Italians of machine guns and numbers of mu-takes prisoner. The Austrians themselves captured a position at Emmon and made additional captures there. At the Gorista bridge-had, where there has been intense artillery fire, the Austrians sjected the Italians from a trench.

A skirmish between four British and three German torpedo but destroyers occurred yesterday off the Belgran coast. The Lon-ton official account says the German destroyers turned as the Brit-th sighted them, and ran for Zeebrugge, the British craft pursuing shots being exchanged in a running fight. Two of the Germants were hit, the statement says. Four men on the British di

GERMAN CHECK AT VERDUN IS AN IMMENSE DISASTER

Hun Offensive Crumbling, and Turning Point Great Change For the Worse. Politically and of War Reached.

(By Times Special Gable.)

Paris, Mar. 21.— New York Times Qable.— "The offensive before Verdun is crumbling. The check is an immense disaster for Germany. It is the Gettysburg of the grest war. Henceforth Germany will be on the defensive. Verdun marks the turning point."

So a high official of the Way Office expressed yesterday the latest inside opinion on the great battle. Confidence here is now becoming a firm belief that France has won a victory which is likely to shorten the war considerably.

The press attaches significance to the progressively lowered morale of German prisoners. The first prisoners did not conceal their expectation that the fortress would be captured. The latest admit they have lost all hope.
